

ART EXPLOSION®

Label Factory® Deluxe 3.0

The Fastest, Easiest Way to Create Professional-Quality Labels

DESCRIPTION

Art Explosion Label Factory Deluxe is the fastest, easiest way to create professional-quality labels. It's all possible with this unique approach from Nova Development, the worldwide leader in innovative graphics software.

Label Factory is incredibly simple to use. And with more than 2,100 label formats and templates supported, you can make business, home office and general purpose labels for virtually every occasion.

But behind the simplicity of Label Factory's design wizard lies a powerful application with some very sophisticated features. You can use the rich text editor to customize, colorize and style text anywhere on your label. Add one of thousands of graphics with a simple click of your mouse and then use unique desktop publishing tools to fine-tune your design. Even use Label Factory's database manager and address book for mail merge. Then print your labels on any laser or inkjet printer.

And Label Factory supports 13 different bar code formats for virtually any labeling requirement, even specialized formats for the automotive, health care and defense industries.

For truly spectacular labels, there's just one choice: Art Explosion Label Factory Deluxe.
